

Individual Waste Warrior of the Year

Behind every successful sustainability initiative and workplace smashing its waste and recycling targets is someone making it happen.

The Waste Warrior of the Year award shines a light on the individuals turning good intentions into real impact.

Submit

Submission

Tell us about this individual's approach to waste, recycling, and sustainability in the workplace, and their impact in 2025.

Please include details about:

- The individual's contribution, actions, and measurable impact on sustainability initiatives and outcomes
- Supporting data, photos, and/or testimonials
- A photo of the individual, along with their job title and first and last names

Confirm your business and the nominee have given consent for Recorra to use this submission in its marketing materials, including a public vote on social media.